

Michael joined EIM on a part-time basis in 2000. He was pastor at Mt. Vernon Community Baptist Church when he began traveling 5-6 times a year with EIM. In 2003, Michael became a full time employee of EIM as President and Program Director. Through his new role at EIM, he has directed many humanitarian and relief programs around the world as well as managed the financial administration of EIM. Michael has a strong passion for sharing the Gospel of Jesus whenever and to whomever. He currently travels over 100,000 miles a year preaching the Gospel and Ministering to people all over the world.

EIM faith building teams venture to the most remote corners of the globe to provide emotional and spiritual support to individuals in need transforming their lives of despair to lives of hope and purpose. Our relief and development work has saved communities by developing infrastructure and livelihoods and by delivering urgently needed food and medicine.

Through it all, our commitment to responsible stewardship of donor dollars and gifts-in-kind has been uncompromising we are doing more with our available resources than ever before.

Celebrating 20 Years of preaching the gospel in 28 Countries to over 1.5 million people. Serving in Nepal, Philippines, Honduras and Africa.

We are so excited about the future of EIM and the communities we serve. For more information about EIM visit www.eimworldwide.org and read our newsletter online.

Thank you Mike Goodwin for your message today.
